MetroList® Expands to Nevada County

Real Estate professionals in Nevada County now have expanded tools and services to list and sell properties in more than 25 Northern California Counties.

Sacramento, CA -- MetroList Services, Inc., an industry leading Multiple Listing Service, located in Northern California, with over 19,500 real estate professionals, has expanded its services to include Nevada County. This expansion follows the successful and seamless Amador County transition into the MetroList Multiple Listing Service in 2018. Nevada County real estate professionals will now have greater exposure to list and sell properties throughout Northern California.

“The Nevada County Association of REALTORS® (NCAOR) is looking forward to joining the MetroList® family,” said Susan Walker, President of the Nevada County Association of REALTORS®. “This partnership will bring a higher standard of tools and technology to our members and to serve our clients,” said Walker.

The Nevada County Association of REALTORS®, formed in 1935, has operated as an independent MLS and will be transitioning its MLS operations to MetroList in May 2019. NCAOR will operate a local MetroList Administrative Center at the Crown Point Circle location to fulfill all MLS related services for Nevada County real estate professionals creating a seamless multi-county service.

“We are pleased to expand our geographic market area and deliver MLS services to our neighbors in Nevada County”, said Bill Miller, CEO of MetroList Services, Inc. “As the largest MLS in Northern California, MetroList provides a robust offering of products and value-added benefits to help our subscribers grow their real estate business.”

“MetroList has a proven track record of being in the forefront of delivering the highest quality real estate technology and customer service. As a result of this collaboration, our agents will access comprehensive tools that will enable them more efficiency and cost savings in their business,” said Kathy Hinman, NCAOR Association Executive.

With the addition of Nevada County, MetroList provides direct MLS services to nine Northern California Counties – Amador, El Dorado, Nevada, Placer, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Stanislaus, Western Merced, and Yolo, covering 10,000 square miles and representing more than 19,500 real estate professionals.

MetroList also offers its subscribers seamless MLS access to neighboring MLS systems, through an interconnected network of eight Northern California MLSs representing an additional 17 Northern California Counties to list and sell real estate.

MetroList has been in continuous operation for the past 34 years. It operates an advanced, state-of-the-art Rapattoni MLS system and provides subscribers with access to statewide property tax records, real estate market trends, mobile app solutions, local administrative service centers, IDX data feeds, high quality technical support, year-round training and education, public facing websites (metrolistpro.com and metrolistmls.com) and much more.

MetroList was the first California MLS to launch the Real Safe Agent system as a free benefit to help real estate agents stay safe when conducting their daily business. In 2017 MetroList became one of three MLSs to be awarded the first Real Estate Standards Organization (RESO) Data Dictionary 1.6 Platinum Certification, RESO's highest level of certification on the most recent version of the Data Dictionary Standard.

“We have a great team at MetroList and we are looking forward to welcoming and delivering great service and products to our new Nevada County real estate subscribers,” added Miller.
