MetroList® Expands To Amador County

Real Estate professionals in Amador County now have expanded access to list and sell properties in more than 25 Northern California Counties.

Sacramento, CA -- MetroList Services, Inc., an industry leading Multiple Listing Service, located in Northern California, with over 19,000 real estate professionals, has expanded its services to include Amador County. Real Estate professionals who work in Amador County will now have greater exposure to list and sell properties throughout Northern California.

“The Amador County Association of REALTORS® (ACAR) is excited to become part of the MetroList family,” said Jill Wade, President of the Amador County Association of REALTORS®. “Being part of MetroList®, ACAR can now focus on growing, supporting and providing resources to our membership,” added Wade.

The Amador County Association of REALTORS® will be transitioning its MLS operations to MetroList in June 2018, and will operate a local MetroList Administrative Center to fulfill all MLS related services for Amador County real estate professionals.

“We are pleased to expand our geographic market area and deliver MLS services to our neighbors in Amador County”, said Bill Miller, CEO of MetroList Services, Inc. “As the largest MLS in Northern California, MetroList provides a robust offering of products and value-added benefits to help our subscribers grow their real estate business.”

“MetroList has a proven track record of being in the forefront of delivering the highest quality real estate technology, customer service and providing selling tools to its real estate brokers and agents,” said Donna Amerine, ACAR Association Executive.

With the addition of Amador County, MetroList provides direct MLS services to eight Northern California Counties – Amador, El Dorado, Placer, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Stanislaus, Western Merced, and Yolo, covering 10,000 square miles and representing more than 19,000 real estate professionals.

MetroList also offers its subscribers seamless MLS access to neighboring MLS systems, through an interconnected network of eight Northern California MLSs representing an additional 17 Northern California Counties to list and sell real estate. “This is a huge benefit for ACAR members to expand their business in nearby counties without having to join another MLS,” added Amerine.

MetroList has been in continuous operation for the past 33 years. It operates an advanced, state-of-the-art Rapattoni MLS system and provides subscribers with access to statewide property tax records, real estate market trend, mobile app solutions, local administrative service centers, IDX data feeds, high quality technical support, year-round training and education, public facing websites (metrolistpro.com and metrolistmls.com) and much more.

MetroList was the first California MLS to launch the Real Safe Agent system as a free benefit to help real estate agents stay safe when conducting their daily business. In 2017 MetroList became one of three MLSs to be awarded the first Real Estate Standards Organization (RESO) Data Dictionary 1.6 Platinum Certification, RESO's highest level of certification on the most recent version of the Data Dictionary Standard.

“We have a great team at MetroList and we are looking forward to welcoming and delivering great service and products to our new Amador subscribers,” added Miller.
